A Fond Farewell from Terri Corbin-Hutchinson:

I have enjoyed the wealth of my experiences at SJC. So, it is with great regret that I report my departure as Library Director of the Callahan Library. My last day here will be September 23, 2011. I have accepted a position as a Library Director at another college in New York City. I have enjoyed working with all of you at SJC. I extend the hope for many blessings and continued success to SJC and the SJC community.
